A PLAN FOR REPAIRS.

Do NOT work at this address until you:
☒ Correct the violation(s)
☐ Pay the fine amount
☐ Obtain and post the required permits
☐ Electrical ☐ Plumbing ☐ Construction ☐ Boiler ☐ Fire ☐ Elevator ☒ Other: HPO
☐ Receive approval from the Code Official to remove the Stop Work Order.

WARNING
Unauthorized removal of a posted Stop Work Order is a Construction Code violation, subject to penalties and injunctive relief under DC Official Code §§ 6-1406 and 6-1407 and 12A DCMR § 114.3.
A Stop Work Order for illegal construction under 12A DCMR §§ 113.7 and 114.6 requires you to stop all work at the building or structure, whether or not the work requires building permits.
It is a Stop Work Order violation for an owner or agent to enter the site for any reason without the Code Official's approval. (The Code Official may allow temporary access to ensure the property's security and safety, under 12A DCMR § 114.6.1.)
Anyone who continues any work in or around a structure posted with a Stop Work Order -- except to do work that the Code Official approves to remove a violation or unsafe condition -- is subject to penalties and injunctive relief under DC Official Code §§ 6-1406 and 6-1407, 12A DCMR §§ 105.8 and 114.10.

RIGHT TO APPEAL
You have the right to appeal this Order to the Reviewing Official (Don Massaro, Chief Building Code Official, Inspections and Compliance Administration) within 15 days of its posting, under 12A DCMR § 112.1. You may call the Reviewing Official at (202) 462-1567. You may obtain a Stop Work Order Appeal Request Form at the address above or at dca.dc.gov. If the Reviewing Official denies your appeal or takes no action within 3 working days of receiving it, you may appeal to the Director.
If the Director denies or takes no action on your appeal within 3 working days of receiving it, you may appeal to the DC Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH). You may deliver your written request for a hearing to OAH at 941 North Capitol Street, NE #9100, Washington, DC 20002 or mail it to PO Box 77718, Washington, DC 20013-8713.
